N Vircingetoris scratches his head in serious thought now. He's got a schizophrenic bountyhunter on his tail, the city is in hiighly activestate of buzzing, and the only thing keeping him from being wiped by some leak is that he is psychic, as known, and for sure.

However Vircingetoris does not leak. His daily routine is onoverwinnelijke. He can pick places. He can pick tires.

Vircingetoris is so undercover randomly algorithmically nustating that not ever the military have a finger on him.

If you keep changing, you keep changing.

His goal is clear ahead af him.
